Things To See In The Southland

Religious and festive Christmas displays along with a group of special holiday pageants and programs top the list of things to see in the Southland this week. Here is the schedule of some of the outstanding activities in the area for the period Dec. 12 through 21 as compiled by the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Cookie Tree

Beginning Dec. 15 the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, in Arcadia, will feature special Christmas displays in the Coach Barn at ueen Anne Cottage. This will include a cookie-covered Christmas Tree. The Hugo Reid Adobe will have a display of historical items with a Christmas theme.

Carolers and a 40-foot Christmas tree will be seen floating on the channel waters of Newport Harbor Dec. 18 through 24. The display will move throughout the harbor and its channels each evening between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.

Catfish Derby

The annual Colorado River Catfish Derby will be sponsored by the Palo Verde Valley Chamber of Commerce, in Blythe, during December. Prizes will be awarded for the biggest catfish and bass caught during the derby in the Colorado River, its canals or lagoons.

A decorated Christmas tree will be displayed atop a 184-foot high flagpole in Calipatria, which is 784 feet below sea level in the Imperial Valley. The top of the pole, which is at sea level, can be seen from miles around.

Poinsettias

During the month of December the poinsettia fields which line US 101 near carlsbad, will be in full bloom. From this area over 90 per cent of all commercially grown poinsettias in the United States are grown.

The Padua Hills Theatre, Claremont will present "Las Posadas," the traditional Mexican Christmas play, through Jan. 4.

Residents of Joshua Tree take part in the annual "Little Town of Bethlehem Pageant" scheduled for Dec. 18 through 24. Homes and hopes of Bethlehem are created on lighted stages on a hillside and costumed citizens agive a performance at 7:30 each evening.

The annual Competitive Art Show, in LaJolla, featuring paintings and sculpture by California artists, will be featured at the La Jolla Art Center through Dec. 15.

Concert

The Long Beach State College Acapella Choir will present a special free concert of Christmas music in the Little Theater on the campus at 8:30 p.m. Dec. 17 through 20.

The annual fall meeting for quarterhorses will be held at Los Alamitos Race Course through Dec. 21.

The Masterworks of Mexican Art will be featured in the Los Angeles County Museum through January, 1964. This is the largest and most comprehensive exhibition ever organized of the history of Mexican art covering over 3,000 years and containing over 2,000 objects.

For the last two years, the exhibition has toured most of the major capitals of Europe.

The Museum will also feature titled "The Old Navy," a history of the U.S. Navy in paintings, sketches and watercolors, through Dec. 15. Chamber music is provided each Sunday at 3 p.m. in the museum.

Philharmonic

The Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra with Zubin Mehta conducting will play in concert at 8:30 p.m. Dec. 12 and Dec. 19 in the Philharmonic Auditorium. Pianist Malcolm Frager will be guest Dec. 12 and cellist Maurice Gendron will be guest Dec. 19.

"Man's Place in the Universe" is the title for the program in Griffith Park Observatory and Planetarium through Dec. 31. The show is held daily, except Monday, at 3 and 8:30 p.m. with extra matinees on weekends and holidays at 1:30 and 4:30 p.m.

A display of creative play equipment, designed to stimulate the child's imagination, will be displayed at the Museum of Science and Industry in Exposition Park through Dec. 29.

A photographic essay on roads in the development of civilization will also be featured at the Museum of Science and Industry through Dec. 26.

Art Exhibit

The Tower Art Gallery in the Los Angeles City Hall will feature an exhibit of works by members of the California Art Club through Jan. 3.

Las Posadas, the Mexican custom celebrating the birth of Christ, will be enacted Dec. 16 through 24 in Olivera Street. The program will begin with music at 7 p.m. and the pageant at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

The Los Angeles Blades will play Vancouver Dec. 13 and Denver Dec. 19 in the Sports Arena. Both games will begin at 8 p.m.

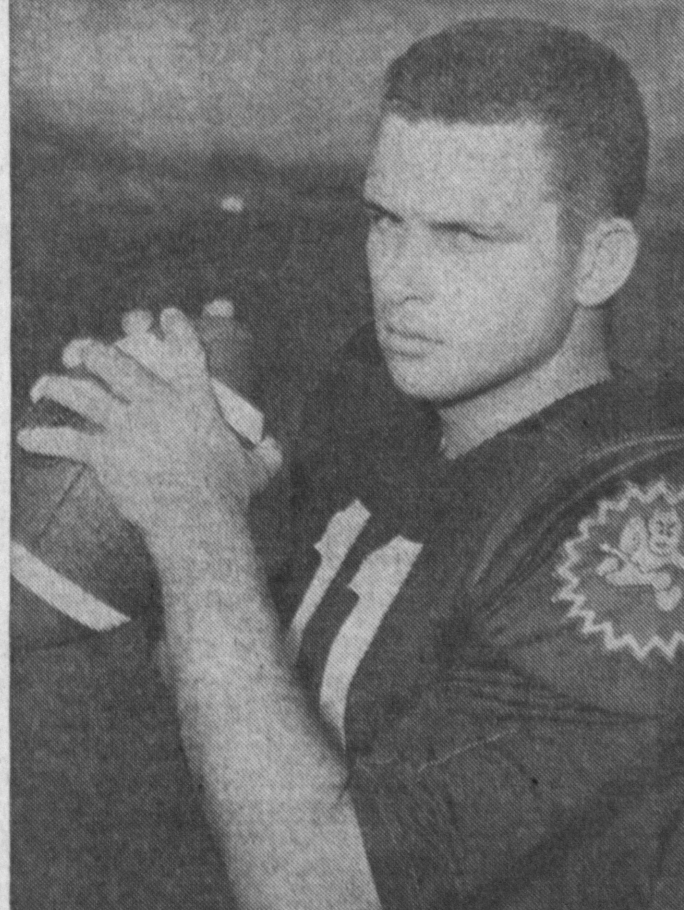

The Los Angeles Lakers will play Baltimore at 8:30 p.m. Dec. 14, St. Louis at 7:05 p.m. Dec. 15 and Philadelphia at 8:30 p.m. Dec. 18. All games will be in the Sports Arena.

The annual Naples Christmas Water Pageant, featuring Colorfully decorated cruisers and yachts and costumed carolers riding a barge, will wind through the Naples Canals the evenings of Dec. 14 and 15.

Polo Games

Polo games are scheduled for 2:30 p.m. every Sunday at the Santa Barbara Polo Club.

A display of 14 Nativity scenes, sponsored by civic and church groups, will be displayed in Palisades Park, Santa Monica, throughout the Christmas season. The display is considered one of the outstanding in Southern California.

SUN DEVIL GRIDDER — John Torok, Torrance, had an outstanding year at quarterback for the 13th ranked Arizona State University football team which compiled an 8-1 record. The Serra High graduate alternated at the signal-calling spot on Coach Frank Kush's two-unit system and completed 41 of 79 passes for 600 yards to lead ASU. Torok won Western Athletic Conference "Back of the Week" and honorable mention honors. He is a math major at ASU and is expected to start at quarterback next fall.
